

Picture the world in 2050 — the world our grandchildren will inherit.

Can we stop the worldwide trends of environmental degradation, continuous war, growing poverty, homelessness and hunger?

We can, but only by organizing for complete change. Present policies are a bipartisan road to disaster. We need housing, health care and decent schools for all, not just a few.

Instead of letting corporations loot the environment, we need democratic planning to meet human needs and preserve our ecosystem.

Instead of letting our government act as a rogue nation bullying the rest of the world, we need to respect the rights of all peoples and take the lead for peace by getting rid of our nuclear weapons.

Instead of prisons which punish and kill, we need education and rehabilitation to reduce crime.

We can paint a new picture. We can join together and take ownership of our earth and its resources. As a socialist society, we can work cooperatively and democratically for the common good instead of being slaves to those who are only interested in short-term gain.

What would Feinland do?

As a United States Senator, Marsha Feinland would introduce legislation to:

- ◆ Withdraw troops and advisors from Afghanistan, Iraq, Haiti and Colombia
- ◆ End aid to Israel until it withdraws to its pre-1967 borders
- ◆ Create Universal Basic Income of $20,000 per household
- ◆ Repeal the Taft-Hartley Act — restore the right to strike and end “right to work” laws
- ◆ Raise the minimum wage to $15 per hour
- ◆ Create universal health care with a “single payer” (Canadian type) system— no insurance company profits
- ◆ Abolish the death penalty
- ◆ End the phony “war on drugs” — legalize marijuana and decriminalize drug use
- ◆ Fully fund the U.S. government share of education costs, particularly special education
- ◆ End the war on children — stop the government mandated testing craze in public schools
- ◆ Protect the National Forests and other public and native lands from corporate exploitation
- ◆ Abolish the Senate and the Electoral College — one person, one vote
